A TRUSTED NAME IN TRUSTS AND ESTATES

For more than 60 years, the attorneys of Davidson, Dawson & Clark have advised individuals and families on wealth transfer, tax savings and philanthropy. Trusts and estates is not just something we do—it is what we do. This makes us uniquely qualified to deal with the challenges and opportunities of the ever-changing estate and gift tax laws. Our focus and highly personalized attention are the reasons bankers, accountants and other trusted financial advisers—including other law firms—refer their clients to us.

SERVING CLIENT NEEDS

While clients may come to Davidson, Dawson & Clark because of our reputation, they stay with us because of our personal service and dedication to handling their affairs with the utmost care and discretion. The work we do is complex and sophisticated. The way we do it earns our clients' trust.

POWERFULLY STAFFED

Davidson, Dawson & Clark has 27 attorneys and a full complement of ancillary professionals devoted to the estate, gift, tax and philanthropic needs of our clients. Our lawyers range in age from their 30's to their 70's, ensuring continuity in the representation of our clients and their families.
